New Outbreak Of Violence In Ship Strike at Coast

By The Canadian Press
New violence flared on the west coast last night in the 14-day-old deep-sea shipping strike when striking Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) pickets clashed with police.

The clash came when a rival Seafarers International Union crew boarded the ship and the two groups fought a battle of 10 seconds. It shook the entire coastline from Victoria, B.C., to Salem, Ore.

Although the situation remained tense, there were no deaths or injuries. The police said the 14-day-old strike was tightening its grip on the 14-day-old tug-war between the two unions.

One shaver yesterday afternoon gave Edmonton little rest but southwest Alberta received 3 inches.

Yesterday's weather throughout the prairie corresponded with that in Edmonton, where a maximum temperature of 31 recorded at 1 p.m. was 14 degrees higher than April 13, 1948.

Overnight there was a low of 27 compared with a low of 11 on the same day last year.

Country temperatures yesterday were:

Police Begin Grim Search
City police started a grim search after the death of 1213 80 street shortly after midnight last night.

They were hunting for the body of a non-born ally alleged to have been killed by Nick Gory in December, 1947.

Working with the aid of searchlights, police continued the hunt for several hours, but no remains were discovered.

Thirty-eight-year-old Gory, a former parking lot worker, appeared yesterday in court accused of killing the infant child of Mary Gory, who is believed to be his step-daughter.

Witnesses' investigations by city detectives are continuing today.

Office Re-Opening
OTTAWA, April 14.—(CP)—Re-opening of a Canadian immigration office in Belfast, making emigration facilities available to residents of Northern Ireland, was announced today.

The court held that Berger, a 55 chief in Poland, condoned strikes against Jews who had been in Hitler's broader SS organization, sending thousands of Jews to gas chambers, mistreating war prisoners, participating in a slave labor and membership in the SS.

TO GAS CHAMBERS
The heaviest sentence—25 years—was imposed on 12 Gen. Gdaliu Berger, 52, one of the highest officers in Hitler's broader SS organization, sending thousands of Jews to gas chambers, mistreating war prisoners, participating in a slave labor and membership in the SS.

7 Are Dead, 61 Hurt; Damage in Millions

SEATTLE, Wash., April 14.—(CP)—Seven people were killed and 61 hurt in the big earthquake that shook the Pacific coast area yesterday, killing seven persons and causing damage estimated at more than $20,000,000.

Prof. Samuel N. Dicken, head of the University of Oregon's geology department said there was evidence to indicate the quake was still "acting up."

WORST ON RECORD
The earthquake was the worst in the recorded history of the Pacific Northwest. At least 81 persons were hospitalized and hundreds of others suffered minor injuries from falling debris or from accidents which occurred during frantic efforts to escape swaying buildings.

The tremor struck shortly before 8 a.m. and lasted for more than 90 seconds. It shook the entire coastline from Victoria, B.C., to Salem, Ore.

Hardest hit were Seattle, Tacoma, Olympia, Chehalis, Centralia, Longview, Kelso and Custer Rock.

B.C. EFFECT SLIGHT
The total effect in British Columbia, however, appeared to have been a bad scare. No one was killed or injured and there was no extensive property damage there.

However, the quake was felt in dozens of B.C. points and the Dominion seismograph at Victoria registered the tremor for more than 10 minutes. It was one of the severest recorded in Canada.

The Victoria seismograph registered No. 6 intensity on a Canadian scale which differs from that of the United States in that "total destruction" is No. 10.

DEATHS IN WASHINGTON

Rail Worker Hurt in Fall

A railway passenger train broke man sustained facial cuts and shoulder injuries when he fell from an eastbound train near Fort Saskatchewan last night.

He is J. A. Ross, 1942 91 street, Edmonton.

Suffering injuries in his fall from a moving eastbound train, which left Edmonton about 10 p.m. yesterday, Ross lay on the right of way eight miles east of Fort Saskatchewan two hours before being found.

He was located by an emergency section crew called out when he was missed from the train.

He was taken to Fort Saskatchewan hospital where he is being treated for his injuries. His condition today is reported as "fair."

HAVE FULL CONTROL
"Provinces have absolute constitutional control of their highways," he explained.

Asked if there was still reason to hope the Trans-Canada Highway would follow the Yellowhead route, he said: "That depends entirely on whether or not the provinces concerned would revise their decisions."

Further discussions between Keith McDonald, Edmonton city architect, and Public Works department officials in regard to the new federal building are expected to take place within a few days, he said.

STORAGE DRAWBACKS
He gave as a reason for a possible limitation on production the shortage of storage facilities.

Taylor said he believed the Golden Spike field is the thickest pay zone on the continent, approaching 500 feet. There are thicker porous sand reefs, he said, but not producing oil.

The Imperial Oil official said the number of oil companies monitoring Alberta is evidence of the growth of the province as one of the greatest oil centres in the western hemisphere.

NOTHING TO COMPARE
Taylor said there have been no American oil discoveries in recent years to compare with Alberta's. He said he was not producing oil.

Regarding seismographic surveying of Alberta's vast acreage, Taylor said that there has, as yet, been little detailed seismic exploration done in Canada. In the Edmonton area alone, he said, it would take between ten and 15 years to make an intensive geophysical survey of the subsurface layers.

Family Troubles Plague Newlyweds

Colbert and MacMurray
 Star in New Laugh Fest

Never has one honeymoon been enjoyed by so many! One of the most laughable, lovable comedies of all time comes to the Rialto Theatre tomorrow, when Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray star in Family Honey-moon.

They've done it again! Teamed for the seventh time in their careers, the memorable duo of "The Reg and I" come through with another troupe-breaking success in Family Honey-moon.

The new comedy is an all-time champion in movie laughs with Claudette Colbert playing a widowed mother of three, all of whom are the objects of a hectic cross-country pursuit which winds up with the honeymooning couple sharing the bed, and board of a farm couple who have six children of their own.

FIVE ON HONEYMOON
 A honeymoon with a personnel of five is bound to be full of fire-works and in this case they are exploding at the film's outset. Two small sons desert the train and are the objects of a hectic cross-country pursuit which winds up with the honeymooning couple sharing the bed, and board of a farm couple who have six children of their own.

Supper MacMurray finally blows up at the unbearable antics of the now-angry bride, and gives one of the kids an old-fashioned posterior paddling. The mistake leads to a general mauling standing with his bride.

Out of the seemingly hopeless tangle however, emerges a climax which will always be remembered as the most comically happy ending ever contrived for a motion picture.

Much of the film is backgrounded by the Grand Canyon, which is beautifully photographed. But first and last, the picture is a heart-warming effervescent series of laughing and plain old belly laughs. It's entertainment for the whole family.

COMIC SPECIALIST
 Claude Rains, a specialist in rib-ticking comedy when he was a screen writer, directed the film and the cast includes Hattie McDaniel and Chill Wills.

The children are portrayed by three of Hollywood's cleverest and most engaging juvenile players, Gail Patrick, sensation of "Reckless." Peter Miles and Jimmy Hunt.

Sally is an adaptation of a novel by Homer Croyp.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas
 HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Where are they now? What has happened to the Glenn Ford and the Ava Gardner of yesterday, the men and women whose fame has touched and then has left behind?

Recently AP foreign affairs analyst Dewitt MacKenzie presented me with a list of his oldtime movie favorites and asked what has happened to them. How much are my findings about them, as well as some others who slipped from stardom:

GLORIA SWANSON and ERIC VON STROHEIM, once great feuders, are back in Hollywood to do a picture together. She has been in television and he has been in France. Sonoma Hayakawa, another recent resident of France, and Ramon Novarro, lately a real estate man, have also made recent film come-backs.

Pola Negri and Max Murray were recently in town, trying to peddle Gilbert Adrian.

Charles Farrell operates the Palm Springs Racquet Club, favorite resort for the movie crowd. His former costar, Janet Gaynor, is retired and married to designer Gilbert Adrian.

St. Laurent Hopes To Raise Incomes

Greater Employment Also Aim of Liberal Party

VANCOUVER, April 14.—(CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said last night his government believes "we can succeed in implementing policies designed not only to maintain present levels of employment and income but to raise them to greater heights." He also said "there are no signs of any serious decline in business."

Addressing a public meeting, Mr. St. Laurent said Canada still "has a long way to go before we can be complacent about the welfare of our people. Canadians did not want to experience another depression."

For that reason, his government was just as concerned today as it was in 1945 to maintain high levels of employment. It was "doing everything which can be done to reopen old markets and to find new ones."

LAIDS FREE ENTERPRISE
Mr. St. Laurent said his party does "not like interfering with people just for the sake of interfering." But it felt that Canadians expect government "to prevent exploitation of the majority... and to help create new jobs for those people who will be encouraged to act on their own initiative."

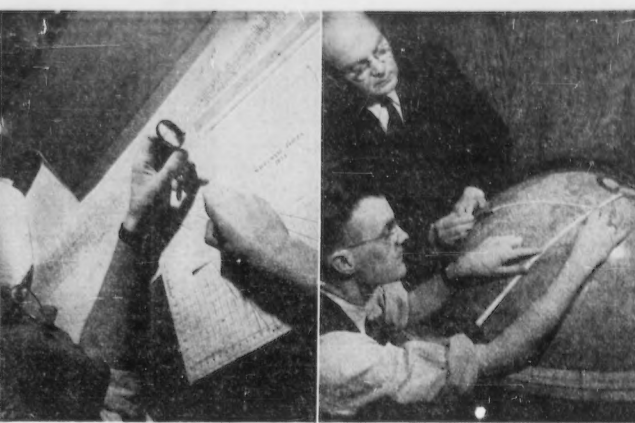

He requested that there have been "a certain amount of unemployment" in Vancouver, but that the Liberals meant by "full employment" was a level of employment over the country as a whole which makes it reasonably possible for most men and women to find work most of the time without too much difficulty.

Coupled with unemployment insurance, that offered "the only kind of safety net."

Mr. St. Laurent said he was holding aloft their placards—saying such things as "Fire transport minister! Charge from the cabinet!" and "Settle with the CNU at once!"—as they gathered in front of the CNR station. He said he was not aware of the stream of international conflict and even after the CNU strike without the following Chevrolet out of the "old cabinet."

WHEN OLD MOTHER EARTH has a convulsion such as the disastrous west coast earthquake of yesterday, science calmly records the event. Here is Dominion Seismologist Dr. E. A. Hodgson calibrating the up-and-down part of the earthquake shock.

SENSITIVE PHOTOGRAPHIC paper measures the time-lag between two types of shock waves, enabling a seismologist to estimate the distance to the epicentre of the quake. Seismologist Bill Milne is here locating the earthquake on his gadget.

Crowe Loot Is Recovered In Grandmother's Grave

NEW YORK, April 14.—(BUP)—FBI officials said today they have recovered all but $13,358 of the $883,600 taken by ex-banker Richard S. Crowe. A cache of $49,122 was found buried in his grandmother's grave last night.

Federal agents believe that most of the money still unaccounted for was spent by Crowe during his eight-day "vacation" in Florida after he looted the vault of the National City branch bank where he was the assistant manager.

$49,122 RECOVERED
Crowe led the FBI men to the cemetery hiding place on Staten Island after a long conference with his attorney and his wife.

The $49,122 in $1, $5, $10 and $20 bills was buried in a metal-lined masonry box about a foot deep in the earth behind the grandmother's headstone, high granite monument.

MICE HAVE DREAM TOWN

RED DEER, April 14.—(CP)—This central Alberta city is going to be no place for a cat from now on—unless it is a secret for sound.

This week council decided to enforce a nine-year-old bylaw requiring that all cats must be belled. The decision was made following representations from members of the Natural History Society that cats were preying on birds.

In the theft, his family has declared he had been suffering a nervous disorder for nearly a year.

Congress Votes Record Sum For Defence Needs

WASHINGTON, April 14.—(BUP)—The house yesterday passed a bill to give the armed services a post-war record $15,000,000,000 to spend or obligate in fiscal 1950 after refusing to add an extra $300,000,000 for the navy air force. The standing vote was 271 to 1. The lone dissent was cast by Rep. Vito Marcantonio, A-L, N.Y. The measure now goes to the senate.

By J. D.

We can expect summer along any day now. I'm frightened to death of thunder and lightning.

As a little boy I used to hide in a dark closet under the stairs and cover my eyes. I thought I was invisible. I was not. I was just a little boy in a dark closet.

Now a little boy has a right to be scared of lightning and thunder and my folks were confident I was not.

Our editor Harold Weir is a little boy in a dark closet.

As a grownup I must pretend I'm not shaking like a jelly-fish when Jordan bolts come rattling from the sky and thunder shakes the heavens.

The hallway closet is no longer an escape from the terrors of a summer storm.

IT'S HUMILIATING. I've what children fear.

I'm not alone. I'm not alone. I'm not alone.

I'm not alone. I'm not alone. I'm not alone.

Anglo Home No. 3, Wednesday reported obtaining 40 feet of oil at a depth of 4,400 feet. A faint gas blow was felt from 4,400 to 4,500 feet in the D2.

FLANK ON PRODUCTION
Flank No. 1 on let in 10-20-20-20-20 is going on production tests today after being "brought in" yesterday. The well is bottomed at 5,173 feet and has 72 feet in the D2.
